Q.37 Make a preci from the paragraph :

Neither wealth nor rank will ensure happiness. Without love and charity and peace of mind you may be rich and great and powerful, but you cannot be happy.

There is a Persian story that the great king being out of spirits consulted his astrologers, and was told that happiness could be ensured by wearing the shirt of a perfectly happy man. The country was searched in vain. No such man could be discovered.

At last a laborer coming from his work was found to fulfill the condition; he was absolutely happy. But alas! The remedy was far off as ever. The man had no shirt.

Sir, Walter Scotts's last words to Loackhart on his death-bed were: "Be virtuous- be religious- be a good man. Nothing else will be any comfort when you come to lie here."
