SECTION-B

Note: Objective type questions. All questions are compulsory.
 (10x1=10)

Read the passage and answer the question:

One day Phatik lost his lesson-book. Even with the help of books he found it very difficult indeed to prepare his lesson. Now, it was impossible. Day after day, the teacher would cane him unmercifully. His condition became so abjectly miserable that even his cousins were ashamed to own him. They began to jeer and insult him more than other boys. He went to his aunt at last, and told her that he had lost his book. His aunt pursed her lips in contempt, and said, "You great clumsy, country lout. How can I afford, with all my family, to buy you new books five times a month? " That night, on his way back from school, Phatik had a bad headache with a fit of shivering. He felt he was going to have an attack of malarial fever. His one great fear was that he would be a nuisance to his aunt.
