Read the passage and answer the questions;

I said again : “There is a ceremony in the house, and you will not be able to see any one today.” The man's face fell. He looked wistfully at me for a moment, said “Good morning”, and went out. I felt a little sorry, and would have called him back, but I found he was returning of his own accord. He came close up to me holding out his offerings and said: “I brought these few things, Sir for the little one. Will you give them to her?”

I took them and was going to pay him, but he caught my hand and said, “You are very kind, Sir, I keep me in your recollection. Do not offer me money! You have a little girl, I too have one like her in my own home. I think of her and bring fruits to your child not to make a profit for myself.”

- Q.11 “I felt a little sorry”. Whom do 'I' refer to in this line.

- Q.12 “The man's face fell”. Who is the man referred to in this statement?
- Q.13 For whom did the man bring few things?
